

Meeting of the Oral Microbiology & Immunology Group (BSDR)

NATURAL AND APPLIED CONTROL OF ORAL HEALTH

Unilever Research and Development, Port Sunlight, Wirral

Wednesday 21st January, 2009

12.30-2.00 – Arrival, Registration and Pack Lunch
2.00 – Welcome and Introduction- Melanie Brading, Unilever Oral Care

Natural Control of Oral Health		Chair: David Spratt, UCL- Eastman Dental Institute
2.15pm	Gordon Ramage University of Glasgow Dental School	Managing oral candidosis the natural way
2.55pm	Iain Chapple Birmingham Dental School	Nutritional control of inflammation
3.35pm	Tea
Chair: Paul Cooper, University of Birmingham
4.00pm	Ann Wood Kings College, London	Deodorizing the mouth - a role for methylotrophs
4.30pm	Jo Verran Manchester Metropolitan University	Modifying oral microbial populations: the ecological hypothesis in action
5.00pm	Julian Marchesi University of Wales, Cardiff	The sponge microbiome as a source of novel bioactives against human pathogens
5.30pm	Discussion and Finish

5.30 – Depart to Hotel
7.20 – Depart Hotel for evening meal

Thursday 22nd January, 2009

9.00 – Coach leaves hotel for Lab.
9.10 – Group photo on steps by Reception

Applied Control of Oral Health		Chair: Jon Pratten, UCL- Eastman Dental Institute
9.30am	Mike Wilson UCL- Eastman Dental Institute	Photo Dynamic Therapy and Periodontitis
10.00am	Thomas Dietrich University of Birmingham	Vitamin D and Periodontitis
10.30	Coffee
Chair: Marcello Riggio, University of Glasgow
11.00am	Lisa Parker, University of Sheffield	Neutrophils and TLR regulation
11.30am	John Greenman University of the West of England	In-vitro Sorbarod model of oral biofilms to test applied inhibitory and cidal agents.
12.00pm	Egija Zaura ACTA, Netherlands	The use of CDFF biofilm models for the evaluation of anti-caries agents
12.30pm	Discussion and Close

OMIG gratefully acknowledges the financial support of Unilever Oral Care Discovery, without which this meeting would not have been possible